

Chautauqua High School

Graduate: JESSICA RIISBRO

Graduation Date: JUNE 19, 1996

Chautauqua High School has really been an incredible experience for me. It was a place that not only taught me to have strength and perserverance but also to enjoy every single day that went by even though it might have been tough sometimes. I was always encouraged to focus my attention on the future and not to sulk over whether I was capable of doing something really good with my life. I won't mention other schools I've been to where I felt like I was given options on the degree of work that I had to do in order to prepare for a doctorrate degree. At that time in my life I hadn't come across a reason for pulling a nerve in my brain just in order to preserve a seemingly worthless accomplishment of bull-shit that some careless teacher didn't give a damn about anyway. Now I'm at a point in my life where I really want to do something good. I've never been so important to as many people as I've been here and I can't think of any other way that I would rather have had my education. I'm really proud to graduate from Chautauqua High school. I can't imagine myself ever forgetting about this school or its staff. Thanks for all that you have done for me and my future.

Sincerely,

Jessica J. Riisbro
