I have been at Chautauqua High School for 2 years and have enjoyed my stay completely. Chautauqua is quite different from other schools in the fact that they let you learn at your own pace. They have a very nice and helpful faculty that I'm sure everybody at the school appreciates. However that does not mean they do not press you to do the most you can, or the best you can.

I would also like to thank my teacher very much for helping me out, and being hard on me when I tried to slack-off. He nevertheless is an exceedingly generous individual who really cares for his students, and wants them to go into the real world, ready and willing to put their learning to use. He is also an awfully sly man, with a humorous vocabulary, that tries to make everyone relax and feel at home in his classroom.

I would also like to thank my P.E. teacher. He is always been a good sport, and it is fun to play sports with him. Like my teacher, he also likes to make small wisecracks that brightens everyone's mood. He is very good at sport and likes all the students, as they all like him. I don't know one person in the school who doesn't like him, including me.

I would also like to thank my principal. He has been there from the start, trying to get me back on track. He helps everyone in the school and tries to get you ready for college or a good job. He doesn't like people that are just lazy and pushes those people really hard. They either end up leaving the school or they end up on the right track, like me.
